

1. Login: Cashier

System	User
1. System starts up and prompts user to login. 	2. Cashier inputs username and password and clicks login.
3. System either logs in or error occurs. -If an error occurs bc the username does not exist:  -If an error occurs bc the password is incorrect:  -If no error occurs:

2. Login: Manager

System	User
--------	------

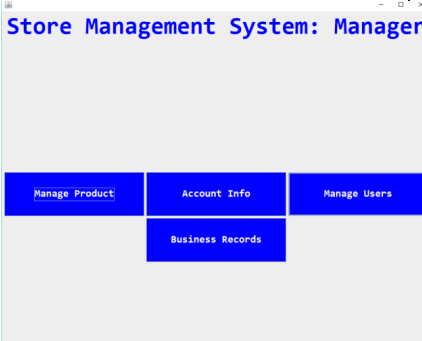

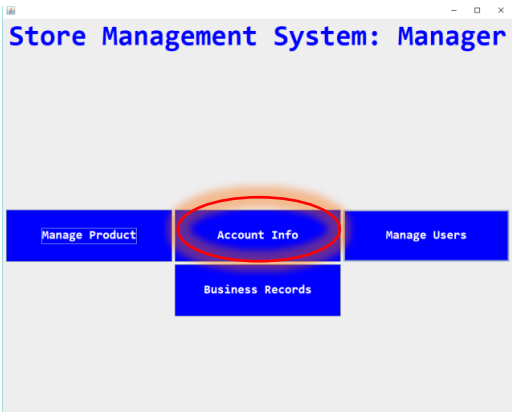

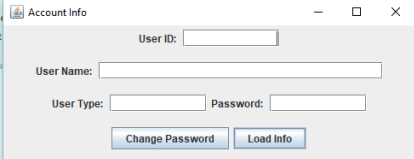

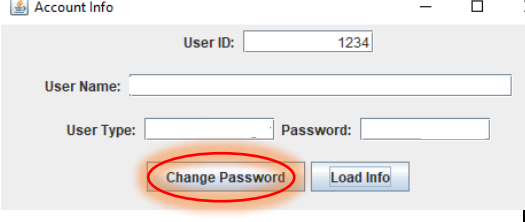

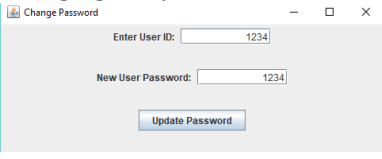

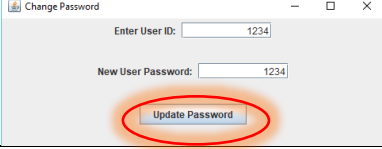

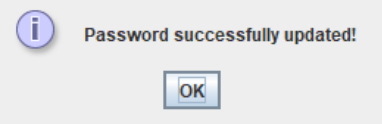

3. Viewing Account Info

System	User
--------	------

1. After logging in, system brings user to main screen (either manager main screen or cashier main screen depending on the user). 	2. User chooses "Account Info".
3. System brings up screen where user can load their info or change their password. 	4. User inputs their user id and clicks "Load Info".
5. System loads the user's info.

4. Changing Password

System	User
1. After logging in, system brings user to main screen (either manager main screen or cashier main screen depending on the user). 	2. User chooses "Account Info".

3. System brings up screen where user can load their info or change their password.. 	4. User clicks change password.
5. System brings up the tab for changing the password. 	6. User inputs their userid and the new password that they want and clicks update password.
7. System confirms that the password changed.  -if you load the user info again, the new password will show

5.Manager Loads Products

System	User
1.After Manager logs in, System brings up Manager Main Screen. 	1'. User clicks on the Manage Products button.

2. System brings up product screen with load product and save product and bars to input product

info

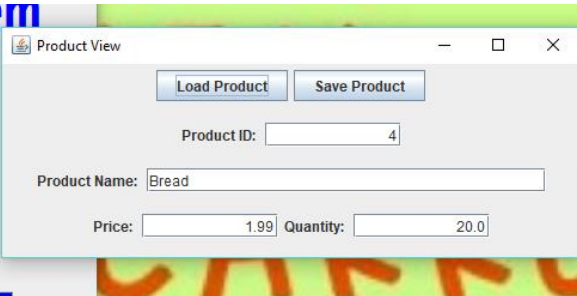

The screenshot shows a 'Product View' window with a title bar. It contains two buttons at the top: 'Load Product' and 'Save Product'. Below them are four input fields: 'Product ID:', 'Product Name:', 'Price:', and 'Quantity:'. The 'Product ID' field is currently empty.

2.' User inputs product id number into the product id bar and clicks load product

The screenshot shows the 'Product View' window with the 'Product ID' field now containing the number '4'. The 'Load Product' button is highlighted with a red circle.

3. System brings up the rest of the info for that product if it exists

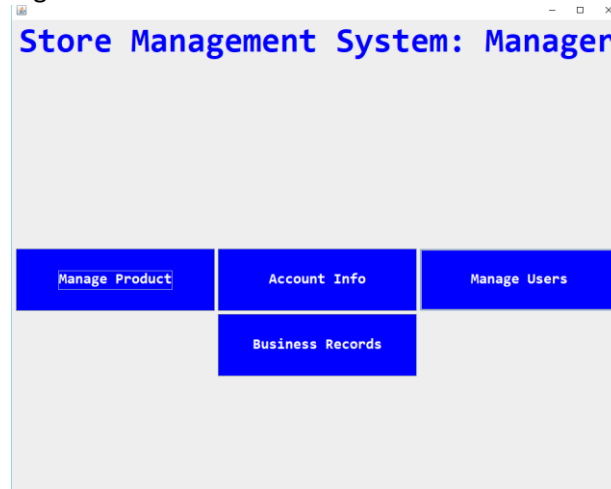

The screenshot shows the 'Product View' window with the 'Product ID' field containing '4'. The 'Product Name' field now contains 'Bread'. The 'Price' field contains '1.99' and the 'Quantity' field contains '20.0'.

3.' User either exits out or loads/saves more products

6. Manager adds new product to database.

System

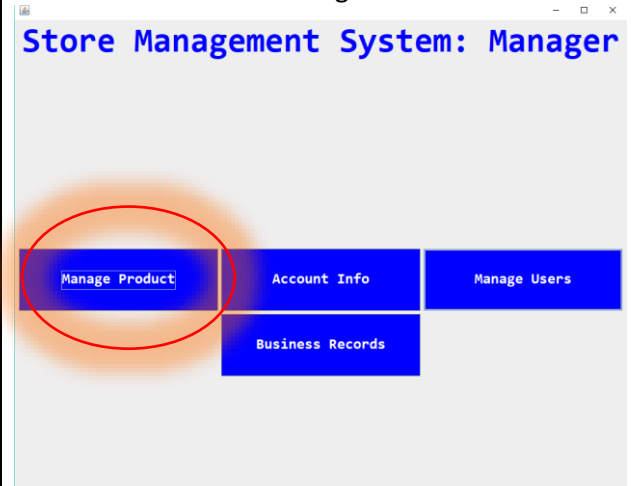

1. System brings up the main screen for manager after login.

The screenshot shows the 'Store Management System: Manager' main screen. It has a title bar and a large blue header. Below the header are four buttons: 'Manage Product', 'Account Info', 'Manage Users', and 'Business Records'.

User

1'. User clicks on the Manage Products button

The screenshot shows the 'Store Management System: Manager' main screen. The 'Manage Product' button is highlighted with a red circle.

2. System brings up product screen with load product and save product and bars to input product info

The screenshot shows a window titled "Product View". It contains two buttons at the top: "Load Product" and "Save Product". Below these are four input fields: "Product ID:" (empty), "Product Name:" (empty), "Price:" (empty), and "Quantity:" (empty).

2.' User inputs product information into the bars and clicks save product.

The screenshot shows the "Product View" window with the following values: "Product ID:" is 40, "Product Name:" is Root Beer, "Price:" is 2.99, and "Quantity:" is 20. The "Save Product" button is circled in red.

3. System saves the product info for later use.

3'. User can either load more products/save more products or go to the main screen

7. Manager Creates New User

System

1. After Manager logs in, System brings up Manager Main Screen.

The screenshot shows a window titled "Store Management System: Manager". It contains a grid of five buttons: "Manage Product", "Account Info", "Manage Users", "Business Records", and "Manage Users" (repeated). The "Manage Users" button is circled in red.

User

2. User clicks on the Manage Users button.

The screenshot shows the "Store Management System: Manager" window with the "Manage Users" button circled in red.

3. System opens up add/edit users tab

The screenshot shows a window titled "Add/Edit Users". It contains two buttons at the top: "Load User" and "Save User". Below these are four input fields: "User ID:" (empty), "User Name:" (empty), "User Type:" (empty), and "Password:" (empty).

4. Manager enters in info into the fields and clicks save user.

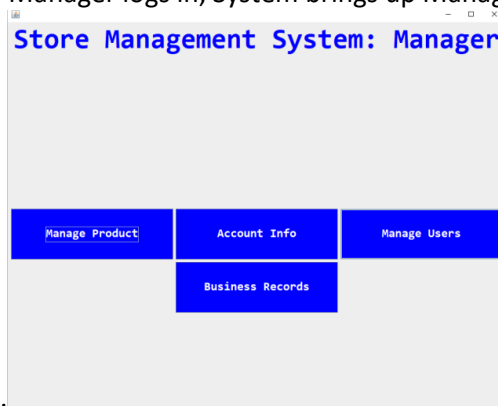

The screenshot shows the "Add/Edit Users" window with the following values: "User ID:" is 2596, "User Name:" is Crys, "User Type:" is Cashier, and "Password:" is 1111. The "Save User" button is circled in red.

8. Business Report

System

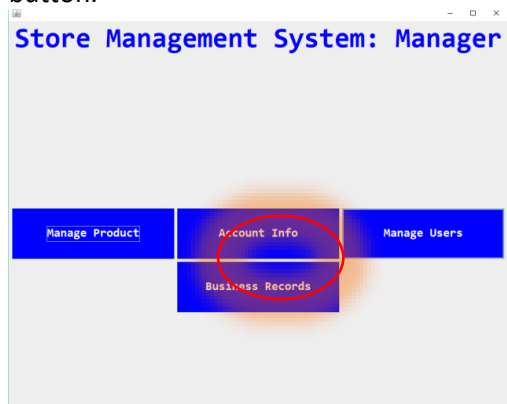

User

1. After Manager logs in, System brings up Manager Main

Screen.

2. User clicks on the Business Records button.

3. System prints out the num of sales and total revenue.

